

BRITISH COLONIAL IN THE TROPICS

THE DESIGN OF THIS AWARD-WINNING NAPLES HOME IN AQUALANE SHORES IS INSPIRED BY A LOVE OF 19TH-CENTURY BRITISH COLONIAL WEST INDIES STYLE

Outdoors, the custom designed pool by landscape architect Kobay Kirwan is surrounded by chaise lounges, with armchairs and ottomans cushioned in a blue Sunbrella fabric. Wicker accent tables are perfect for holding a beverage or book.

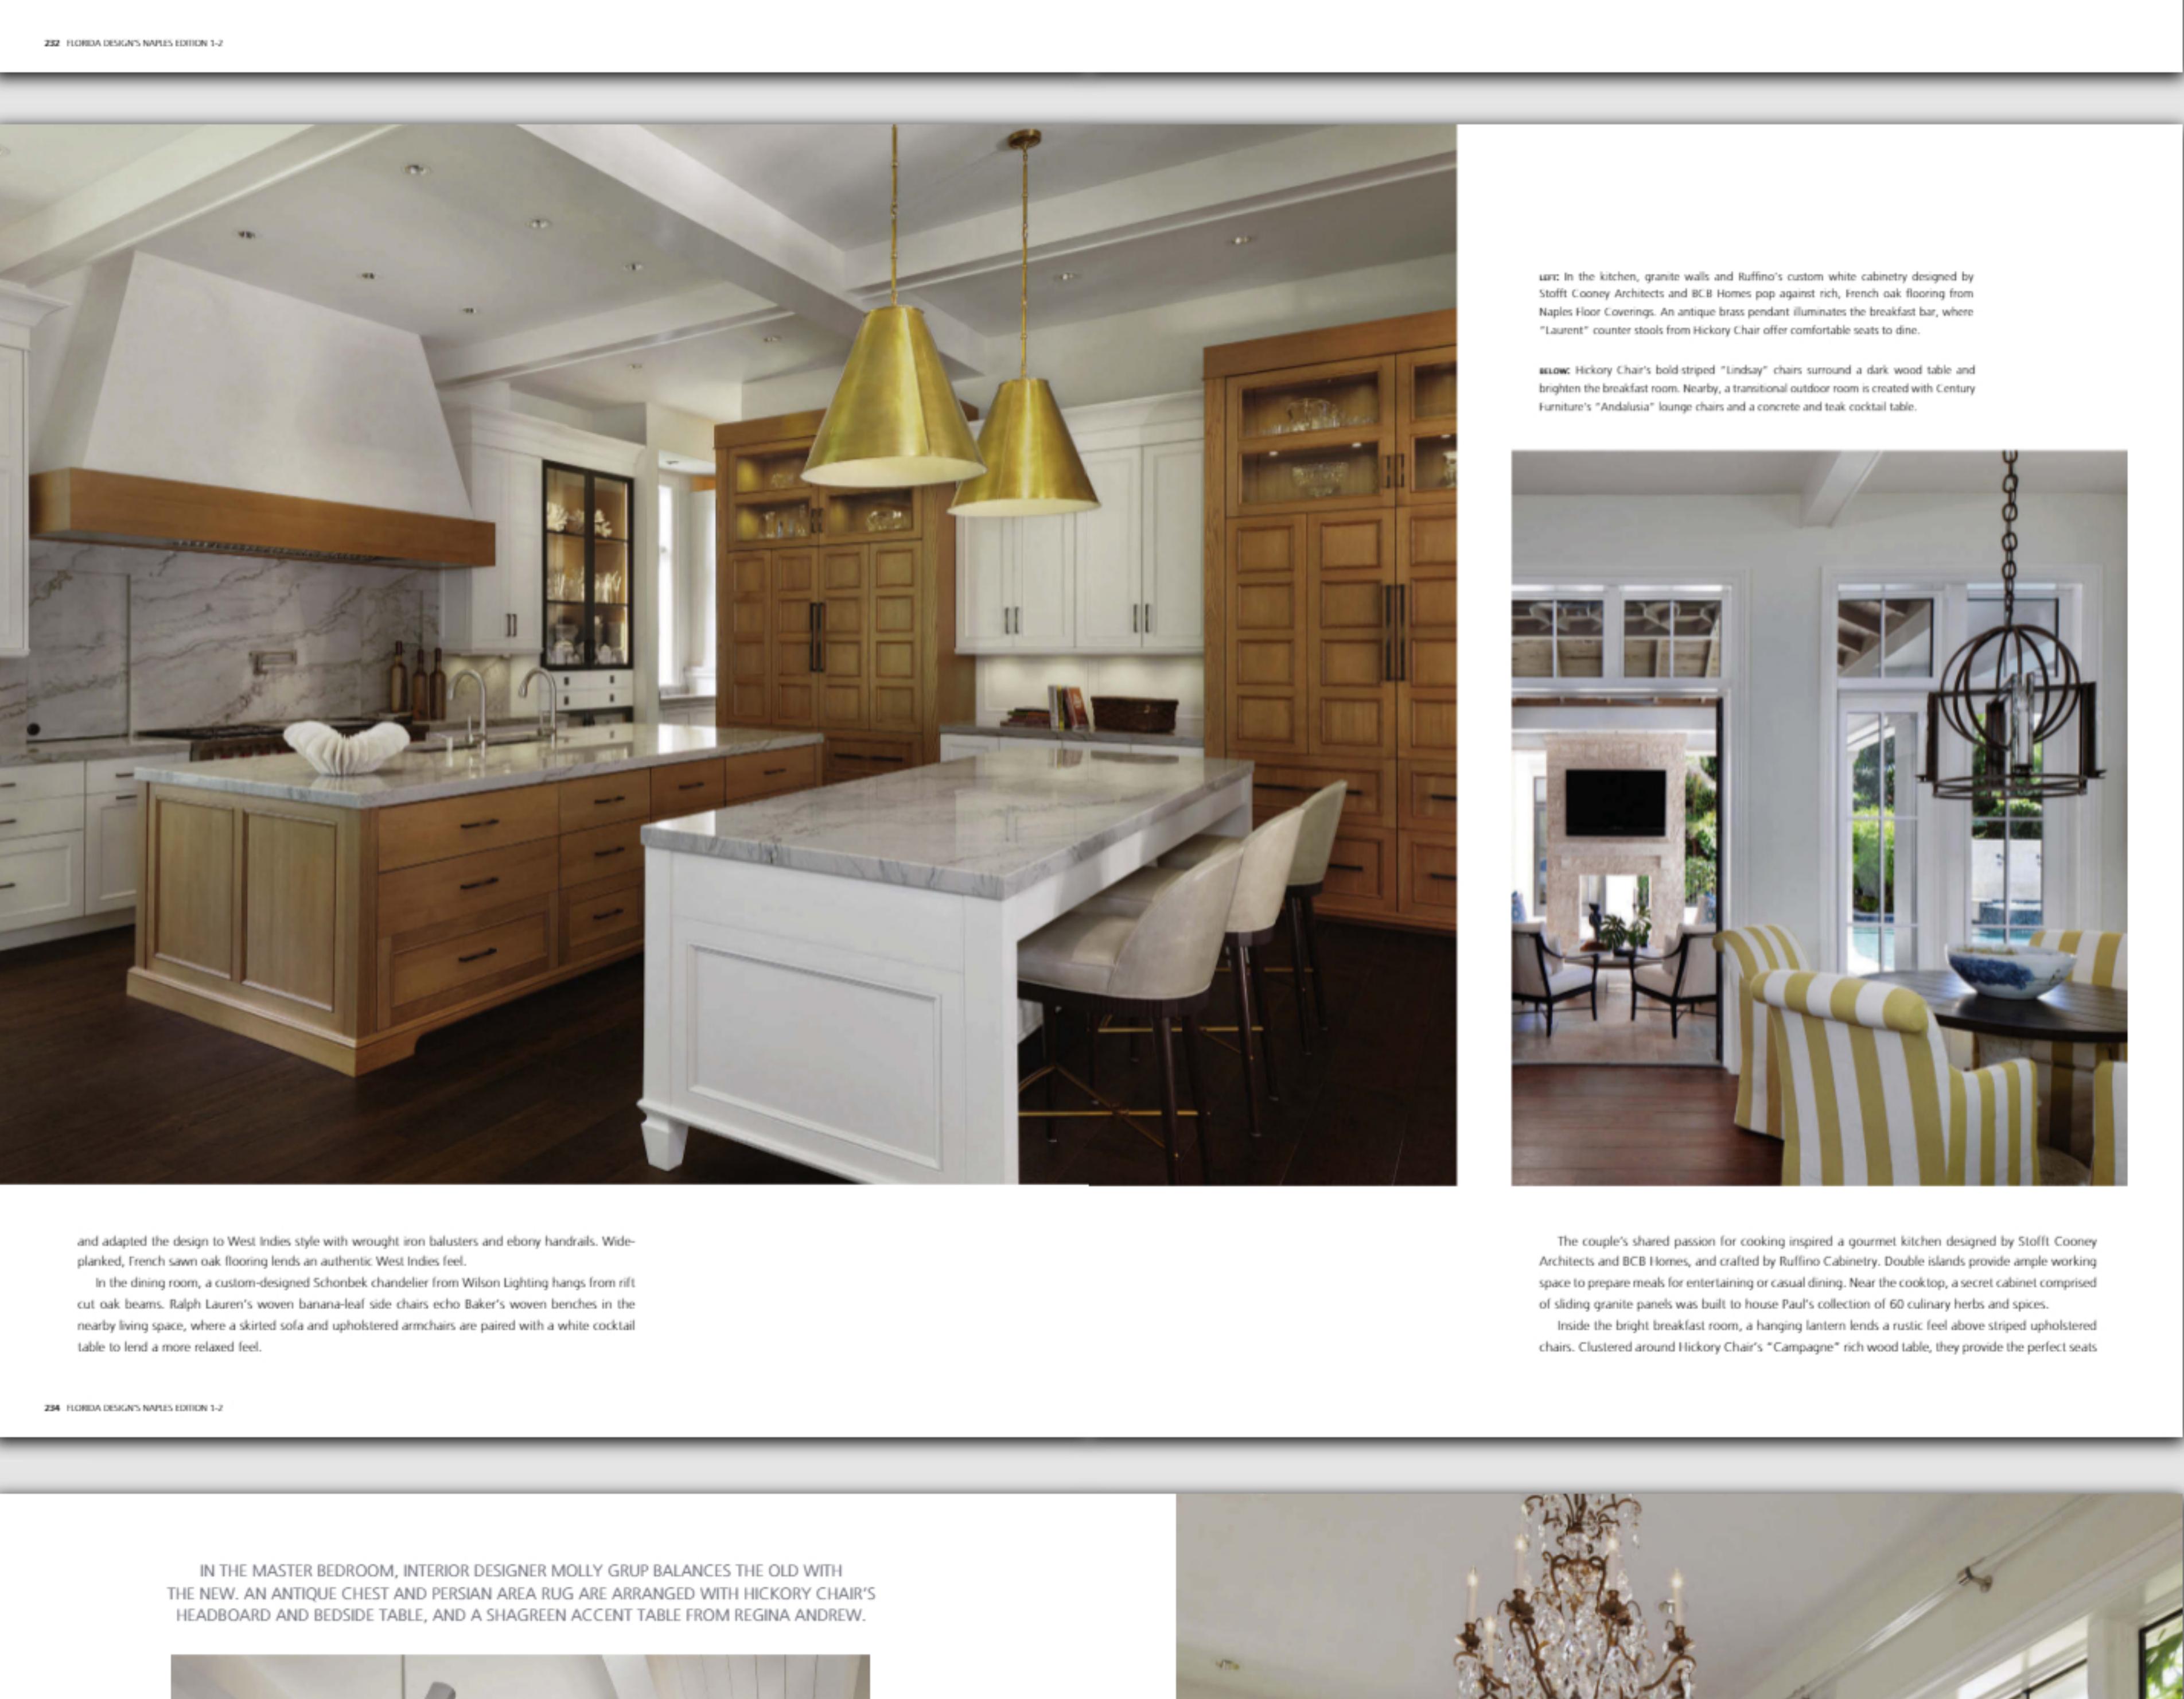

Incorporating the style of their 1880s Ohio home in Cincinnati's historic district into their new home on the Gulf Coast of Florida was important to homeowners Mamette and Paul Perry. Just steps from the beach and a short distance to the Old Naples shopping district, their 5,400-square-foot residence was inspired by the historic home they left behind, and their desire for a tropical aesthetic. "The location — a one-third acre in the heart of Old Naples — was everything," Mamette says. The couple spent a great deal of time with architects Randall Stofft and John Cooney, as well as builder Scott Weddle, to develop the essential concepts of this British West Indies Colonial-style home.

ABOVE: The dramatic floating staircase designed by architect John Cooney was created in the British West Indies style. Visual Comfort's large "Durana" lantern centers a foyer with a lounge chair from Hickory Chair Furniture Company.

WALL COLORS AND TEXTILES IN THE LIVING ROOM WERE SELECTED IN LIGHT NEUTRAL COLORS WITH POPS OF AQUA, TO OFFER A MORE CONTEMPORARY FEEL. HICKORY CHAIR'S "SUTTON" SKIRTED SOFA AND LILLIAN AUGUST'S ARMCHAIRS PAIR WELL WITH BAY DESIGN'S COCKTAIL TABLE.

"Every element of this home represents a team effort," Weddle says. The Perrys also worked very closely with interior designer Molly Grup, making every decision together, a process that excluded choosing which antiques from Cincinnati to bring with them to the Naples home. "The team paid such attention to the details that I live without ever having to worry about anything."

Outdoors, a custom-designed pool by landscape architect Kobay Kirwan helps create a tranquil setting where the Perrys can enjoy the Florida sunshine. "The design takes advantage of the site's abundant natural light as well as the indigenous indoor-outdoor lifestyle," Cooney says.

In the striking foyer, a dramatic lighting fixture hangs above a large, light-colored wood table. The high ceilings and exposed wooden beams are visible throughout the space. The windows provide a view of the surrounding tropical landscape.

ABOVE: In the kitchen, granite walls and Ruffino's custom white cabinetry designed by Stofft Cooney Architects and BCB Homes, and crafted by Ruffino Cabinetry. Double doors on rich, French oak flooring from Naples Floor Covering. An antique brass pendant illuminates the breakfast bar, where "Laurel" counter stools from Hickory Chair offer comfortable seats for breakfast.

BETWEEN: Hickory Chair's bold striped "Lindsey" chairs surround a dark wood table and brighten the breakfast room. Nearby, a transitional outdoor room is created with Century Furniture's "Andalusia" lounge chairs and a concrete and teak cocktail table.

The master bath is created with relaxation in mind, a crystal chandelier illuminates a porcelain soaking tub, flanked by shimmering marble floors from Rubin Soheigai's studio.

Inside the bright breakfast room, a hanging lantern feels above striped upholstered chairs. Clustered around Hickory Chair's "Campaign" rich wood table, they provide the perfect seats
